BRUCHER THIELTGEN
PARTNERS AVOCATS A LA COUR

"The lawyer is to a trial what the cook is to a meal" Aristippus. The lawyer is the intermediary between Justice and his/her clients and as such he must listen to them and transcribe as well as possible, in legal language, the dispute which is presented to him/her by his/her clients. As an intermediary, I always try to advise my clients on the best strategy to follow, to explain the legal acts performed and above all, to collaborate with the client so that the meal served to the judge is the best. The icing on the cake is of course winning the trial.

SELECTED EXPERIENCE

Previously lawyer at the Paris Bar, I practiced for five years in a Parisian law firm. I join Brucher Thieltgen & Partners in 2020 and focuses my practice on Commercial Litigation. Holder of a "Diplôme de Juriste Conseil d'Entreprise" and a Master's Degree in business law with a Certificate of Specialization in company law from the University of Nancy II, I mainly act in M&A litigation and conflicts between shareholders. I also help companies in the negotiation, the drafting and the execution of commercial contracts.
